Privacy Notice Information

As a customer of our agency, we take this opportunity to both thank you and share with you the importance in which we hold the privacy and confidentiality of your insurance and personal information.

Minton Insurance & Associates, as a member of the financial services industry, has been and continues to be subject to federal and state privacy laws regarding the collection and exchange of your insurance information.

In the course of processing your policy or handling your claim, we may collect information about you from:

- The insurance application or other forms (such as date of birth, social security number, driver's license information, etc.)
- Your transactions with us (such as payments and claim history)
- Government agencies such as the department of motor vehicles
- Information we receive from consumer reporting agencies

Examples of some organizations to whom we might give information to:

- Independent claims adjuster or appraisers who need to adjust your claim
- A law firm hired to defend you in the event of a claim against you
- Our affiliated insurance companies with whom we do business
- Mortgagee or Lien Holder listed on your policy

We treat your personal information with respect and concern for your privacy. We do not sell any of your personal information to a third party. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to guard the information we obtain from you.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our office. We will be glad to go over this privacy notice information.
